President's Column

Hello All -

As all of many many flakes of snow from our 2009 blizzard melt away, it leads me to think, what's snowing on the LWVLC? Quite a bit, perhaps a little more than forecast. Water issues, fiscal peril, budgets, schools redistricting, clean air just to name a few.

If these issues and challenges of the day are snow, sleet and even rain, the membership of the League are the earth and roots, rich in knowledge and support. Let's gather this winter and as 2010 begins, let's resolves to help our county flourish.

In 2009, we celebrated the 100 year anniversary of the Suffrage movement. We distributed to our membership the "Virginia Women and The Vote - 1909-2009" written by Bernice Colvard on the Equal Suffrage League and The League of Women Voters in Virginia.

In 2010, we hope to lend our voice regarding the County/School budget and our position on education, offer forums of discussion on the water issues in Loudoun, continue to register the Loudoun County high school seniors, and new this year, begin to offer the Woman of the Year award to a deserving woman in the County and much much more.

However, just as shoveling the snow has to be done bit by bit and it takes the joint effort of many entities to clear roads and parking lots, etc. Fulfilling the objectives of the League of Women Voters Loudoun County takes the many efforts of all. We invite everyone to join the League and help us.

Just as a friendly reminder, please don't forget League Day at the General Assembly on January 27. We will meet in the General Assembly building at Senate room 3 West at 8:30 a.m.

Finally, thank you all for your membership and supporting the LWVLC this past year and we wish you a happy New Year.

Sincerely -

Glenda Parsons - co-President
Carla Wiley - co-President

Virginia Women and the Vote 1909 – 2009 One hundred years ago, in 1909, a group of women met in Richmond to establish Virginia's Equal Suffrage League (ESL), which evolved into today's League of Women Voters of Virginia (LWV-VA). The idea for a book about women's suffrage in Virginia was conceived by current LWV-VA President Olga Hernandez. Virginia Women and the Vote 1909-2009 chronicles the events of those 100 years. LWVUS has sent a copy of this beautiful and informative book for each member of our League, which we will distribute at the Women's History Month Tea and at the Annual Meeting. We also have a few extra copies available for sale for $10, if you would like to give one as a gift. Please contact Co-President Glenda Parsons if you would like an additional copy, or to arrange to receive your copy prior to the Tea. Read the full press release about the book at http://www.lwv-va.org/files/virginia\_women\_and\_the\_vote.pdf.

Dedication of the Crenshaw House: On Friday, November 20th, 2009, Virginia Commonwealth University's College of Humanities and Sciences, the VCU Libraries, and the Virginia League of Women Voters commemorated the centennial anniversary of the founding of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, precursor to the League of Women Voters, at Anne Clay Crenshaw's house in Richmond. A suffrage march was followed by the official renaming of the building to The Crenshaw House. Marchers, some in period dress, sang songs and carried signs and banners promoting women's suffrage. Shortly after the 19th Amendment was ratified, the Equal Suffrage League became the League of Women Voters of Virginia. The Crenshaw house was owned by the Crenshaw family for nearly 40 years, and was purchased by the Richmond Professional Institute, now VCU, in the 1960's. It currently serves as the VCU Center for Public Policy. Two members of the League of Women Voters Loudoun County, current co-president Glenda Parsons and former president Betsy Mayr attended the ceremonies.

Happy 2010! We have a lot of plans for the coming year! Please check our website, www.loudoun.va.lwvnet.org/ frequently for dates and times of meetings and events, and for updates on our activities. Members are always welcome at Board Meetings, and are encouraged to participate in events, provide inputs and suggestions for program planning, activities and fund raising, and to recruit new members to the League!
