President's Column

As the League of Women Voters celebrates its 90th birthday, the LWV of Loudoun County is turning the corner in bringing the issues of Loudoun to the forefront. As we all know, things can get done with a united front, persistence, drive, and motivation. These things are what the League was founded on and they will be what the LWVLC will need to continue meeting all of our goals and objectives. However we can't do it alone.

Madeline Kunin, author of Pearls, Politics and Power, said, "Politics is where the decisions are made that determine whether our children will go to war, whether our parents will live in security, and whether Earth itself will continue as we know it. It is crucial," she said, "for women to get more involved for a number of reasons. Among them is that women have different life experiences from men and consequently women promote and have credibility in different areas of life."

LWVLLC is not asking you to run for office; we are asking for you to participate in discussions, reaching consensus, and helping educate others.

We are in the midst of High School Voter Registration, where we register the local high school seniors to vote. The satisfaction is unyielding watching these young adults so proudly register as they realize that they not only have an opinion, but they can actually vote and their opinion counts. And yet, we can't do it alone.

May 23 is our Annual meeting and the LWVLC has some important Loudoun-focused issues to discuss. If everyone would get one person to join – we are twice as strong and we can do twice the amount of work. As we grow, our objectives grow.

We are so very proud of LWV of Loudoun County and those that have led before us. Join us in continuing to advocate and educate.

Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world; indeed it is the only thing that ever has. Margaret Mead

The Suffragist Mrs. Robert Walker Visits Women's History Month Tea

The 30 attendees of the March 14 Women's History Month Tea were treated to presentations by two amazing women.

Lynne Garvey-Hodge portrayed the Suffragist Mrs. Robert Walker in a moving, historically accurate, and sometimes humorous tale about her activities in the movement to obtain voting rights for women. By the end of her portrayal, League members were shouting in unison, "How long must women wait for liberty?"

Wanda Alexander, Horizons Consulting, was named LWV of Loudoun County's Woman of the Year. Ms. Alexander was cited for her mentoring of women in Loudoun County and the surrounding Metropolitan area; as a strong advocate of women-owned businesses and entrepreneurship; and for her continued philanthropic support of women's organizations and woman-owned businesses.

Knowing that we can make a difference in this world is a great motivator. How can we know this and not be involved? Susan Jeffers

We can do more than dream, we can imagine. Aristotle

More than half of women over age 40 don't dye their hair, according to L'Oreal. This means the color gray is sending a message of self-acceptance and confidence like never before.

High School Voter Registration

High School Voter Registration is ongoing through May. Each year, LWV of Loudoun County members visit all 10 high schools in Loudoun County to register eligible seniors to vote. In previous years, as many as 2,000 students were registered. This project is a vital, fun, and rewarding way to educate and encourage students to do their civic duty and help to improve the percentage of county residents who vote! Volunteers are still needed May 17-18 at Broad Run and May 20 at Park View. If you've never done voter registration before, don't worry. An experienced volunteer is paired with novices. All materials are provided, along with talking points. Please contact Jennifer Severance at 703-771-8467; jennifer_severance@yahoo.com to sign up.

League of Women Voters of Loudoun County Public Policy Positions

Domestic Violence

The League of Women Voters of Loudoun County supports the following positions:

- Adequate shelters for abused women and their children
- Emphasis on state of the art programs and well trained personnel in Loudoun County for counseling and rehabilitation of abusers as well as the abused.
- Continuing inclusion of education about spouse abuse and its causes, treatment, and prevention in the curriculum in the Loudoun County school system.
- Enforcement of existing state laws to protect the victims of abuse.

Education

The League of Women Voters of Loudoun County supports full funding of public schools to ensure state of the art teacher training and pay, safe and pleasant physical facilities, the development of well-rounded and challenging curricular and extra-curricular programs, and the development of special programs for at-risk children and schools and the full funding of such programs.

More specifically, the LWVLC:

- Supports continuous curriculum units on Family Life Education for grades K-12.
- Supports the availability of outstanding guidance services in public schools.
- Supports responsible funding for school libraries to maintain a high standard of quality.
- Supports competitive salaries for teachers that are no lower than the national average.

 - is non-threatening;
 - considers both a student's long-term and short-term performance;
 - measures strengths and weaknesses of students, teachers, and the system;
 - considers class participation and in-class performance;
 - utilizes a "portfolio" of various examples of a student's work;
 - utilizes multiple assessments of a student's achievement;
 - utilizes a variety of assessment tools and techniques (such as objective and subjective tests, lab work, class projects, essays).
- Believes that an assessment program should ensure that each child reaches his or her full potential.

Land Use

The League of Women Voters of Loudoun County supports and encourages the following positions:

- Development guidelines that aspire to the highest community standards; are sensitive to the integrity of social, economic, and natural systems; and are in harmony with the county's character and goals.

- The legal doctrine of “presumption of legislative validity” as it is applied to land use decisions by local governments as stated in local zoning ordinances, based on the premise that local governing bodies are the appropriate decision makers, being closest to local conditions, and that it is the role of the courts to ensure fairness of the proceedings.
- Implementation of open space and environmental protection policies.
- Public acquisition of open space easements, especially in critical environmental areas, areas of scenic, natural and historic significance, and agricultural lands.
- Implementation of a transportation plan that results in a pattern of development consistent with land use and fiscal policies, and with consideration for the health, safety, and convenience of local citizens. The state plans and funds transportation projects based upon suggestions by the local government and approved by the Commonwealth Transportation Board and the General Assembly
- Adherence to the planning process, as set forth in the Comprehensive Plan, the goals, and purposes, as set forth in the Comprehensive Plan, and the following elements of the Comprehensive Plan as implemented by the zoning ordinances. In particular:
 - Preservation of the agricultural industry and the best agricultural soils to “preserve the cultural, social, economic, environmental, and aesthetic amenities provided by agricultural land use”;
 - Active County programs and policies to preserve open space and farmland;
 - Density transfers from agricultural and open space areas to designated growth areas within a planning district, and the concept of Purchase of Development Rights;
 - The budgeting and expenditure of county funds for agricultural land preservation programs including the strengthening of Agricultural and Forest Districts.
